

Grounds Maintenance – The area around and inside the chain link fence must be trimmed regularly and be kept clear of excessive undergrowth and debris. It is important that this be done on a consistent basis to provide continuity for the measurements being taken. The area around and inside the DFIR should also be trimmed for appearance, but is not as critical for measurement data.